Due to COVID 19 the school has focused on academics and limited extra mural sport activities

Mission

To provide an education of progressively high quality for all our learners, and in doing so, lay a strong foundation for the development of talent and capabilities. Our aim is to enable our learners to realise their full potential in the intellectual, spiritual, social, cultural and physical fields. To promote the spirit of “UBUNTU” and advancement of democratic transformation

Vision

To produce responsible future citizens. We aim to achieve this by upholding norms and standards of behaviour, which are conducive to our learners experiencing a rich education. we espouse the values of kindness, honesty, hardwork, loyalty, intergrity, love and consideration.

School Motto

Siyakuphakama ngemisebenzi nenyaniso
(We shall rise through deeds and honesty)

Well done !!!

Congratulations to the grade 12 learners that took part of in the Eastern Cape computer competition hosted at Steve Biko Hall in Ginsberg outside King Williams Town.

Our learners had a advantage in preparing for the competition because of their fully functional lab at school sponsored and supported by Sifunda Kunye Educational project.

Special congratulation goes to Phuele Mphalala for obtaining the top marks for final competition examination.
